

Banquet / Café style Setup

In this plan, seating is commonly calculated based on round tables that hold 8 people using 5' round tables. Banquet style allows for small group interaction at each table. Banquet seating is often used for dinner events or as separate space for breakfast and lunch breaks. We also do café half round where we seat 4-5 people in a crescent half round style where all the attendees face the presenter.

