

Classroom Style setup

Classroom layout includes rows of tables and chairs. Six foot tables can comfortably hold two people per table, and eight foot tables can comfortably hold three people per table.

The tables are typically arranged in rows joining two tables in length, and then incorporate an aisle for people to access the seats

